NEW YORK — (P) — Financial markets stepped cautiously but firmly into 1934 today and sentiment, as a whole, was of the mildly cheerful wariety.

Leading equities pushed up 1 to 2 of more points in quiet trading while grains, cotton and most other commodities registered moderate improvement. The dollar eased a bit in foreign exchange dealings as the gold rate was again unchanged. Rall loans displayed a rising inciriation and other bonds were comparatively steady.

Shares of Chrysler and General
