Robert W. Anderson Dies At 84; C. P. Crowley, Harness Maker And Banker Robert W. Anderson, Veteran harness maker, banker and leader *Executive, Dies

harness maker, banker and leader in the Nepperhan Lodge of Masons, died last night in his home at 61 Greenvale Avenue after an illness of three months. He was eighty-four on June 27.

Born and educated in Yonkers, Mr. Anderson was a son of Isaiah and Mathilda Norman Anderson. At an early age he entered the harness and saddlery business founded by his father in 1848 and last located at 28 Dock Street, At one time he supplied farmers and horsemen for miles about the countryside. Despite the loss of business with the advent of the automobile he did not discontinue his business until just five years ago.

For the last 33 years Mr. Anderson had served as a vice president and a director of the Yonkers Savings and Loan Association.

Throughout his adult life he had been active in Masonry, serving as master of Nepperhan Lodge in 1908 and in 1912 and as secretary from 1922 to 1934. He continued to serve for some time afterwards as executive secretary of the district Masonic employment bureau. Mr. Anderson was a past president also of the Palisade Boat Club. He was long a communicant of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Thomas Jurors HearTestimony On Pay Checks

WASHINGTON, (AP) - The trial of Representative J. Parnell Thomas, R. N. J., formerly of Mount Vernon, N. Y., on charges of Congressional payroll padding revolved today around simple but vital documents. The prosecution sought detailed information about checks and pay lists, from Congressional, Internal Revenue bureau and bank offi-

It claims these papers were involved in a scheme to defraud the government through salary kickbacks to Thomas from wornen who drew government pay but didn't do any government work. On trial with Thomas, a member and former chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, is his former secretary, Miss Helen Campbell. Her attorney told the jury yesterday that any payroll actions she performed were done under "compulsion" from Thomas. The lawmaker and his secretary are accused of conspiring to cheat the government through a system the prosecution charges worked like this:

Miss Campbell and Thomas conferred. Miss Campbell persuaded her niece, Myra Midkiff, and her maid, Arnette Minor, to go on Thomas' payroll, although they didn't do any work, and turn their checks over to her. She put the checks in her own account in a branch of the Gity Bank here, then sent her own checks for identical amounts to Allendale, N. J., to be credited to her boss
