Visit With Larry Jones....

by Richard Evans, Editor

Last week, my wife, Nancy, and I travelled to Oklahoma City to attend the funeral of my aunt, Mrs. Doris Gimpel, who was my mother's sister. Doris was in her 99th year and had spent much of her adult life researching her family history. While in Oklahoma City, I visited The Fountains of Canterbury, where Larry Jones is currently living. This is a beautiful facility on the far north side of Oklahoma City. It has several levels of care and Larry is in The Springs which is the assisted living or nursing care section.

I found Larry in his room sitting in a wheelchair. He was awake and I greeted him and introduced myself. Since I had not met Larry in person, I knew he would not recognize me. After a few minutes, he seemed to realize who I was and seemed to brighten as I mentioned the Wolfensberger Family Association. I took a seat and attempted to visit with him. However, after a few minutes and several attempts at conversation, I realized that Larry was having great difficulty holding up his end of the conversation.

It was apparent that Larry has physically recovered from his injuries suffered from his fall in January. But he has severe mental handicaps trying to talk.

I did not contact any of Larry's family in Oklahoma City and was with him less than an hour. He is getting great care and the Staff I talked to, seemed to be dedicated to the care of their residents. Larry needs our prayers and I'm sure would enjoy receiving cards and flowers from WFA members. His address is Larry Jones, The Fountains of Canterbury, The Springs, Rm 606B, 1404 NW 122nd Street, Oklahoma City, OK 73114. I mentioned to him that several of our members had called me inquiring about his condition. I don't know whether he understood what I was telling him.

Vice-President & Historian

by Myrna Liddell

One day the phone rang, and a very special man, our own Larry Jones, was on the line. He asked me if I thought it would work to form a Wolfensberger Family Association. I assured him that it was a great idea! "Well, then, you can help!," he said.

Myrna Liddell

WFA V-Pres. & Historian

That phone call started a long and gracious relationship with a gentleman who has over and over exceeded the definition of the word, "volunteer". I have never met anyone like him, (except perhaps my own father), and doubt I ever will. At that time, he asked me to be the Vice-President of our Association, and recently have begun the added assignment of Historian. Larry has been our Historian for "always" and those are large shoes to fill. He and his family have sent wonderful files, from which he "entered" data carefully on his computer over the years. He spent hundreds of hours, as he collected information. Most of the time he phoned personally, and visited as many "cousins" as he could at reunions. He knows so many personally, and remembered so much about each one. Fortunately, many personal stories are found in his source notes on the computer files. Now my assignment is to continue the database, which means I will always welcome updates of information you may have. Also it is our hope to make the genealogy database more available for

FROM THE EDITOR

Usually, while preparing the Wolfensberger Family Newsletter, I spend most of my time arranging material prepared by others. I do not feel I have very much to add. But as I began assembling this Newsletter, I felt the need to share with you the effect of Larry Jones' incapacity on my job of preparing a good newsletter for our members.

Because Larry spent so much of his time calling and visiting with our members across the country, he was always aware of upcoming events, received reports from members and many photos taken during these events. Much of this was forwarded to me to be included in future newsletters. This really made doing the Newsletter a breeze as I could depend on Larry to have an envelope full of notes, pictures and other items in the next mail.

But, at least for the present, Larry will be unable to maintain the close contact with our members and it will be necessary for me and other WFA Officers to step in and establish a closer contact with our members so that we will continue to have an interesting and family oriented newsletter. Therefore, I ask each of you to keep me in mind for items of interest to the family such as reunions and other family get-togethers, births, deaths, retirements, promotions, change of locations, and at this time the activities of any of our family serving in the US Armed Forces.

In recent days I have received a number of phone calls from members asking about Larry's situation and I hope you will continue to call, letting me know what is going on on your limb of this magnificent tree we call WOLFENSBERGER.

I am sure many of our members have found old photos of grandparents, great grandparents and even great-great-grandparents. You have noted in recent issues that some of our members have shared with us these lovely old photographs of family. If you have access to a computer scanner, it is easy to generate a .jpg file of pictures that can be sent by e-mail. If you do not have such access, please mail them to me so I can scan them. I will take good care of them and return them to you promptly. It would be a great thing to have a gallery of photos of Wolfensberger ancestors. So look for some of those old photos to share in the WFA Newsletter

Obituaries.....

Ruby Lorena (Wolfenbarger) REDDICK, an aunt of WFA Vice-Pres. Myrna Liddell, passed away at Magic Valley Regional Medical Center with her family at her side on March 14, 2003. She was born April 10, 1926, to William Amzy and Daisy WOLFENBARGER in Richfield, Idaho. She lived with her family in Jerome and it was there she met her life-time companion, Ellis Reddick. They were married July 17, 1943, and spent 59 wonderful years together.

Ruby and Ellis had four children, five grandchildren, one great-grandson. Ruby had many interests in life but none more important than family and friends. She will be remembered for her devotion to her family. She enjoyed long conversations with friends, and her quick wit will always be remembered. Ruby was always a generous hostess in her home. She enriched her life with reading and music. She also had a wealth of memorized stories and poems. Ruby was a member of the Daughters of the Nile, IRAS Temple No.40, a Past Grand Noble plus a 50 year member of the Syringa Rebekah Lodge in Jerome, Idaho. She was a member of the First Christian Church in Twin Falls, Idaho.

She is survived by her husband, Ellis; a daughter, and 2 sons; brother Bill (Rhuema) Wolfenbarger of Clarkston, WA; and sisters Opal (Lynn) Bingham of Jerome and Frieda Wells of Mount Shasta, CA. She was preceded in death by her daughter Cheryl Darlene, her parents, one brother, and one sister.

A funeral service was held Wednesday, March 19, 2003, at the Hove Robertson Funeral Chapel, Jerome, ID. Ruby's nephew, Reverend Andy Morrts, officiated. Burial followed in the Jerome Cemetery. The family suggests contributions may be made to the Shriners Hospitals for Children.

Ruby was loved, just as she loved others. She will be remembered with warm and happy thoughts. She will be missed by all who knew her.

Howard Kelly "Jack" FINCHER of Ashland, OR succumbed to cancer while undergoing treatment in Los Angeles, CA on Thursday, April 10, 2003. Jack was diagnosed with cancer of the pancreas in early 2003 and he and his wife, Claire moved to Los Angeles for radiation and chemo treatment at the medical center there. Jack was born in Bonham, TX and was the grandson of Joanna America (Evans) Fincher, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Sparger) Evans. He grew up in Tulsa OK where he attended public schools. Jack enlisted in the Air Force in 1950 and settled in the San Francisco Bay Area of CA upon his discharge. He was a talented writer and essayist and had numerous articles and essays published in Readers Digest, Saturday Review, The Smithsonian, and other leading publications. He is survived by his wife of 42 years, Clara (Claire) Mae (BOETTCHER) Fincher, daughters Erica Christine and Emily Cathleen Fincher and David Andrew Leo Fincher. David Fincher is a Hollywood motion picture Director and lives in Los Angeles. Jack Fincher was a very private person and I was unable to talk him into writing for the WFA Newsletter but he had a very strong interest in the family. A memorial gathering for Jack will take place in the Fincher "front yard" in Ashland, OR in June. RLE

Wilkerson Wolfenbarger-Prisoner of War

by Charlotte Wolfenbarger Lucas, FSA Scot., WFA Member

On October 5, 1842, in Grainger County, Tennessee, Nancy Strange Wolfenbarger presented her husband, Reuben W. Wolfenbarger, with their fourth child, a baby boy they named Wilkerson. Reuben is believed to have been the son of Jacob Wolfenbarger and Nancy Slone. Nancy was the daughter of Smith Strange. Reuben and Nancy believed in education and all of their children were sent to school. Even at the age of 17 Wilkerson was attending school. His older brother, William Sylvester Wolfenbarger, became an attorney. Among other places, he practiced law in Muskogee, OK beginning before statehood in 1907.

Growing up in Eastern Tennessee during the 1800's boys learned how to hunt and ride. Most of them were excellent marksmen and horsemen. Wilkerson was no exception. At 4:30 a.m. on April 12, 1861, Wilkerson's life changed forever. That was the hour Fort Sumpter was fired upon and with that act the Civil War officially began. In Knoxville, Wilkerson enlisted in the Confederate Cavalry on August 12, 1861. He was assigned to McClellan's Cavalry (Co. C, 5th Battalion) when it was mustered into service on August 29, 1861. By March 26, 1862, Wilkerson had risen to the rank of Corporal and on that date, in Knoxville, he signed a requisition for fuel which consisted of 1/3 cord wood. He stated that there were no commissioned officers left in charge and that there were only eight men left in the company. On May 4, 1862 the 4th and 5th Battalions were consolidated, with a few exceptions, and it became the 2nd Tennessee Cavalry (Ashby's Reg't). Wilkerson was a private in Co. B. Ashby's is also incorrectly referred to as the 1st Tennessee Cavalry. His two older brothers also served in the same company

Drawing of the Knox County Jail in 1866 from Pictorial History of the Civil War by Lossing

On or about July 11, 1863 Wilkerson was captured by the North and held in the Knox County jail. Eastern Tennessee was Union, for the most part, during the war and the jail was used by the Union as a prison to house their Confederate prisoners. He was charged with horse stealing. He was still there during the week of July 21 - July 27, 1863. The Knox County jail consisted of iron cages with a small door at the bottom. Prisoners were required to crawl on their hands and knees to enter. The only thing in the cell with them was a bucket for waste and a bucket of water. Local residents were allowed to walk through the jail and throw garbage, feces, urine etc. at the prisoners. Due to the crowded and unsanitary conditions illness and disease ran rampant. It is unknown at this time as to when or how Wilkerson got out. Wilkerson was back with his company by December 31st as he was given $324.65 pay for the period of Feb. 28th - Dec. 31st and issued clothing. The regiment laid down their arms at Bennett's House, Durham Station, Orange County, North Carolina on April 26, 1865. Wilkerson was paroled at Cumberland Gap, Kentucky the next day, April 27th, and allowed to return to Grainger County. Major battles Wilkerson survived were the Battle of Stone's River - Mufreesborough, Tennessee; Battle of Chickamauga, Georgia; the Siege of Atlanta, Georgia; and the Carolinas Campaign.

Life was difficult for the returning Confederate soldier in East Tennessee. They were treated like vermin even by those they had known all of their lives and by relatives. President Lincoln ordered that there were to be no reprisals, but that didn't stop the local Unionists from seeking their revenge. Many of the returning Confederate soldiers were beaten and drug through the streets. After returning home, Wilkerson left Grainger County and went to Lee County, Virginia where on August 16, 1867 he married Sarah Jane Speak. Sarah was the daughter of John Speak and Mary Dean. No birth record has been found for Wilkerson but his marriage record to Sarah shows Grainger County as his birth place and Reuben and Nancy Wolfenbarger as his parents. Their daughter, L. Clementine "Clemmie" was born in Virginia in 1868.

Between 1868 and 1870 Wilkerson left Virginia and went to Texas. Many Confederate soldiers went west to escape the harassment of their countrymen and Texas was a haven for Confederates. Texas was totally Confederate throughout the war. Wilkerson settled in Upshur County. After their arrival in Upshur County, Wilkerson and Sarah had two more children: William Lee "Willie" born April 2, 1870 and Mary Jane "Mollie" born December 21, 1871. Between 1871 and June 1873 Sarah died. Her grave has not been located. On June 12, 1873, Wilkerson married Mary Patman Weaver in Upshur County, Texas. She was the daughter of Seaborn Jackson Weaver and Sarah Carroll.

On December 13, 1873 Wilkerson was awarded a contract to run the Poor Farm and Poor House beginning January 1, 1874 which he ran until his death. Once he was paid $ 30.00 for splitting 4000 rails and later $ 37.00 for splitting 5000 rails for the Poor Farm. He is listed as Wm. Wolfenbarger in the Commissioner's Court Minutes. The only time he used his full name was on his marriage records. The rest of the time he is shown as W. Wolfenbarger. By the end of 1880, Wilkerson and Mary had 5 children. All of them were born in Upshur County: Thomas W., "Tommy", born March 23, 1874, Sarah Elizabeth, "Lizzie", born March 22, 1875, Seaborn Richard (always called Richard from childhood) born August 31, 1876, Reuben Scott born in Aug 1879 (called Scott), and Lula Frances born on December 31, 1880.

It appears that Wilkerson and Mary may have owned 150 acres of land in Upshur County. On November 5, 1889 the land was sold at auction by the Sheriff of Upshur County, T. B. Littlepage. It was sold to G. C. Hopkins for $160.00 to settle a judgment. It is not known at this time what kind of judgment had been brought against the property nor when the land was purchased. Mary's name appears before that of her second husband, James Kelsey, which indicates that the land may have originally belonged to her and Wilkerson.

Wilkerson died on January 27, 1882 at the age of 39 years. Family tradition says he died of tuberculosis. He is buried in the oldest part of the Gilmer City Cemetery in Upshur County. On his tombstone Mary had the words "Farewell Dear Husband" inscribed. What a fitting epitaph for this wonderful husband and father. I have the distinct honor of being his great granddaughter. CWL

My Computer

This certainly clears things up!

(A little amusement, probably not by Dr. Seuss)

If a packet hits a pocket on a socket on a port, and the bus is interrupted at a very last resort,
and the access to the memory makes your floppy disk abort,
then the socket packet pocket has an error to report.

If your cursor finds a menu item followed by a dash, and the double-clicking icon puts your window in the trash,
and your data is corrupted cause the index doesn't hash, then your situation's hopeless and your system's gonna crash!

If the label on the cable on the table at your house, says the network is connected to the button on your mouse,
but your packets want to tunnel to another protocol, that's repeatedly rejected by the printer down the hall.

And your screen is all distorted by the side effects of gauss, so your icons in the window are as wavy as a souse;
then you may as well reboot and go out with a bang,
'cuz sure as I'm a poet, the sucker's gonna hang.

When the copy on your floppy's getting sloppy in the disk,
and the macro code instructions is causing unnecessary risk, then you'll have to flash the memory and you'll want to RAM your ROM, and then quickly turn off the computer and be sure to tell your Mom!

Well, that certainly clears things up for me. How about you?

Murder in Michigan

From a recent Livonia Observer newspaper of Livonia, Michigan, we learn that John Wolfenbarger of Detroit and another man was found guilty of murder by a jury on May 9, 2003.

Wolfenbarger was convicted on 5 counts of first-degree premeditated murder in the slaying of a Livonia jeweler, his mother, and his three children during a robbery in their home in Livonia December 21, 2002. The other man was convicted of second-degree premeditated murder.

The above was found in the May 10, 2003 edition of the Livonia Observer newspaper in an article by Staff Writer Carol Marshall. John Wolfenbarger was not a member of the WFA and his connection to the Wolfensberger family is not known. The above is included in the WFA newsletter as information for those who might have seen the news reports of the recent events in Livonia, Michigan. RLE
