

Carlson Blasts Ahlstrom

DEC 19 1989

By BOB HOUSTON

Jamestown Mayor Steven B. Carlson attacked Mayor-elect Donald W. Ahlstrom Monday for not telling city residents who will be managing their city for the next two years.

Carlson was talking about city government personnel appointments the new mayor must make by Jan. 1.

"Here it is, Dec. 18," Carlson said,

"and, to my knowledge, none of these appointments, including the department heads, have yet to be announced by the mayor-elect."

Even before taking office, Carlson said, Ahlstrom has strained his relationship with Jamestown residents by not announcing his selections.

"It is critically important to resolve this as quickly as possible,"
