MEDIA ALERT

PLEASE JOIN US FOR A TELECONFERENCE CALL THURSDAY WITH RYAN, ONE OF THREE BACHELORS ELIMINATED THIS WEEK ON "THE BACHELORETTE"

WHAT: Teleconference call with Ryan, one of three men to be eliminated this week from "The Bachelorette," airing on ABC.

WHEN: Thursday, May 29, 12:30 p.m., ET/11:30 a.m., CT/9:30 a.m., PT

WHO: Bachelor Ryan, 28, the pro football player from Lakeville, Minnesota, whose profound faith and virginity sets him apart from the rest of the men, lashed out at Twilley at The Magic Castle group date for not being genuine. But then, in a particularly dramatic cocktail party, Ryan called Jeremy out for being disrespectful – not competitive – as did some of the other jealous men, when Jeremy pulled DeAnna away from Twilley at the party. Citing DeAnna as one of few women he has found truly intriguing, Ryan was frustrated that his honesty and sincerity didn't lead to a rose.

CALL INFO: IT IS NECESSARY TO RSVP TO RECEIVE THE CONFERENCE TELEPHONE NUMBER AND CONFERENCE CODE!

Title: ABC Conference Call: "The Bachelorette"

Please plan to dial in 5-10 minutes prior to the scheduled start time.

PLEASE R.S.V.P. TO

More information about "The Bachelorette"

In the third episode of "The Bachelorette," which will air Monday, June 2 (8:00-10:00 p.m., ET), DeAnna turns up the heat with a romantic one-on-one dinner date overlooking Los Angeles and another under the stars at the historic Mt. Wilson Observatory, with both rendezvous having a high-stakes rose on the line – if the bachelor doesn't receive a rose, he goes home. The Bachelorette takes the remaining men on a "ride 'em cowboy" visit to a bona fide dude ranch with another rose at stake. DeAnna also has special surprise in store for her beaux when she takes them to meet her good friend Ellen DeGeneres. And Ellen won't just be questioning the men; she'll be handing out a rose.

In the end, at a very intense cocktail party, the men fall all over themselves trying to convince DeAnna that they're completely there for her. For some it might be too little, too late. She sends three bachelors home, but is sure that her decisions are the right ones for her and is ready to move on with the nine remaining men.

TEN AMERICAN PLAYERS ANNOUNCED FOR
"I SURVIVED A JAPANESE GAME SHOW,"
PREMIERING TUESDAY, JUNE 24 ON ABC

"I Survived a Japanese Game Show" has completed shooting in Japan for a premiere TUESDAY, JUNE 24 (9:00-10:00 p.m., ET) on ABC. This unscripted reality/game show takes an eye-opening, behind-the-scenes look at 10 Americans (listed below) – many of whom have never traveled outside the United States – who were whisked away to Japan to compete in the ultimate Japanese game show...with hilarious results. The final winner will take home $250,000.

Guiding the American players through their stay in Japan will be host/interpreter Tony Sano ("Touch Wood," "Beating Vegas"), an American actor fluent in Japanese; a house mother and resident pot-stirrer, Mamasan; and the witty game show host Rome Kanda ("Pink Panther," "Saturday Night Live"), who leads the contestants through all of the zany challenges.

The ten players are:

MARY GREENAWALT (23)

Occupation: Gym membership sales rep

Matthews, North Carolina

Education: BFA Acting

With her bright red hair and devil-may-care attitude, Mary is the epitome of a fireball. Admittedly vain, this vixen has a healthy love of herself and a low opinion of others. She's incredibly silly and relies on her pixieish charm to get by, and even gets paid for being a "party motivator" – a job tailor made for this wild child.

ANDREW KELLY-HAYES (28)

Occupation: Radio sales consultant

Boston, Massachusetts

Education: BA Journalism/Communication

With his hilarious stories and off-the-wall energy, this flip flop-wearing funnyman could be a long-lost Belushi brother. Whether he's schmoozing old ladies at Bingo, harassing strangers while on "Smile Patrol" or joining his college cheerleading team to meet hot girls, Andrew has a reputation for being a nut.

BELINDA MADISON (38)

Occupation: Veterinarian

Charlotte, North Carolina

Education: BS in Marine Science and DVM (Doctor of Veterinary Medicine)

This independent, career focused woman is a feisty veterinarian who puts making money and friends before any romantic relationships. Belinda's confidence is evident in her vivacious and spunky – yet poised – persona.

CATHY NARDONE (21)

Occupation: Affiliate manager

Staten Island, New York

Education: Bachelors Degree

Happily born and raised in Staten Island, New York, Cathy is "Staten Island for life" with no plans or desires to ever leave. This brutally honest tough chick has a mouth like a sailor and will "swear to God" she's not to be messed with in the slightest.

DARCY SLETAGER (31)

Sandpoint, Idaho

Education: BFA Visual Arts

This small town, single mom is in desperate need of an escape from her lackluster life of the cubicles and from the dating scene of Sandpoint, Idaho. Always putting her kids first, Darcy feels it's time to take herself off the back burner and get back to the fiery blonde she used to be.

DONNELL PITMAN (32)

Occupation: Real estate appraiser

Chicago, Illinois

Although Donnell is usually loud and energetic, this "All American" dad is struggling to provide for his family and fulfill his shattered dreams of playing pro football. Donnell has competition coursing through his veins and would love the opportunity to prove to his family that he can be greater than what they've seen so far.

JUSTIN WOOD (24)

Occupation: Financial representative

Trussville, Alabama

Education: Attending Community College

Charming and good looking, Justin describes himself as a "divine, fine and genuine-grade-A piece of southern beast." A true southern gentleman, complete with the "twang," Justin is a fish-loving, hunting, girl-chasing guru at heart.

MEAGHAN COOPER (22)

Occupation: Bartender

San Antonio, Texas

Education: AA degree

Despite being born and raised in San Antonio, Meaghan is the spitting image of a blonde California Valley girl. Hot, ditzy and free-spirited, she uses her sex appeal to her advantage in both her work and personal life. And, of course, she loves to be the center of attention.

OLGA MEDVEDEV (26)

Occupation: Waitress

Medford, Massachusetts

Education: BA in Broadcast Journalism

Olga's "don't-mess-with-me attitude" comes off quite abrasive, if you're not ready for it, but who can blame her, coming from a Russian family with eight brothers? Not easily forgotten, this opinionated waitress is hilarious and comical with her "tell it like it is" way of life.

BEN HUGHES (44)

Occupation: Punxsutawney Phil's handler / hospital VP

Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania

Education: MS Human Resources

He's lovable, he's comical, admittedly in the midst of a mid-life crisis, and he's the official handler of Punxsutawney Phil, the ground hog. Who wouldn't fall in love with this modest, cheerful and quirky character?

Some of the games/challenges will include:

WHY IS THIS FOOD SO HARD TO EAT? -- Why? Because the food is attached to the head of a teammate who must run in place on a fast-moving treadmill, while the first teammate leans over a platform and tries to eat from the moving dish.

CRAZY CRANE FINDS FLUFFY BEAR -- This takes the American arcade game to the next level, as blindfolded teammates must operate a moving crane while another teammate precariously dangles trying to collect as many stuffed animals as he/she can.

CHICKEN BUTT SCRAMBLE -- The contestants create their own version of Japanese scrambled eggs as they attempt to smash goo-filled oversized eggs with only their butts... while wearing chicken suits.

The executive producers are Arthur Smith and Kent Weed (A. Smith & Co., "Kitchen Nightmares," "Hell's Kitchen"), David Sidebotham, Karsten Bartholin and Tim Crescenti, from a concept by Babyfoot APS Denmark.

CHARLES PRATT, JR. NAMED HEADWRITER AND CONSULTING PRODUCER FOR ABC'S "ALL MY CHILDREN"

Brian Frons, president, Daytime, Disney-ABC Television Group announced today that Emmy® Award-winning writer Charles Pratt, Jr. will serve as headwriter and consulting producer for ABC's Emmy® Award-winning Daytime Drama, "All My Children." Mr. Pratt will begin on June 23, 2008.

"Charles Pratt, Jr. is a master storyteller. His talents in writing today's biggest primetime hits in conjunction with his vast experience with daytime dramas will undoubtedly elevate 'All My Children' stories in new and exciting directions," says Mr. Frons.

"I am incredibly excited to welcome Chuck as headwriter of 'All My Children.' I look forward to his contemporary storytelling sensibility, his warmth and sense of humor enriching the entire canvas of Pine Valley," says executive producer Julie Hanan Carruthers.

Mr. Pratt served as co-headwriter of ABC's "General Hospital" from 2002-2006. His additional TV credits include ABC's megahit series "Desperate Housewives" and "Ugly Betty," in addition to "Melrose Place," "Titans," "Manchester Prep," "Sunset Beach," "Pacific Palisades," "Models, Inc.," "Life Goes On," "Gabriel's Fire" and "Santa Barbara." Film credits include "The Initiation" and "A Cry for Angels." Currently Mr. Pratt has two primetime pilots in the works.

"All My Children" celebrated its 38th Anniversary on January 5, 2007. The program has successfully maintained its popularity and continues to be one of daytime's most compelling dramas. "All My Children" took home the 1998 Emmy Award for Outstanding Daytime Drama Series, the third time the show received this top honor, having also garnered the award in 1994 and 1992. In 2004 the show also received its third consecutive Emmy Award for Outstanding Daytime Drama Series Writing, its third Writers Guild Award and its fourth GLAAD Media Award in March 2007.

Created by Agnes Nixon, "All My Children" premiered on the ABC Television Network on January 5, 1970, as a half-hour show; seven years later it expanded to an hour. Julie Hanan Carruthers is executive producer, Casey Childs, Conal O'Brien, Angela Tessinari and Steven Williford directing. "All My Children" is produced in New York and airs MONDAY-FRIDAY (1:00-2:00 p.m., ET), on the ABC Television Network.

Visit "All My Children" on the Web at abc.com (keyword: amc).

WEEK No. 35:

During the week containing the final nights of the TV Season and the first nights of the summer frame leading into Memorial Day weekend (w/o 5/19/08), ABC ranked No. 2 to an "Idol"-fueled Fox among Adults 18-49. In the key young adult sales demographic, ABC (2.6/8) defeated No. 3 CBS by 24% (2.1/6) and No. 4 NBC by 63% (1.6/5).

Rankings: ABC claimed 5 of the week's Top 20 TV programs in Adults 18-49, placing 3 in the Top 10 and airing TV's No. 1 scripted series with the "Grey's Anatomy" season finale: "Grey's Anatomy" – No. 3, "Dancing w/Stars Results" – No. 5, "Dancing with the Stars" – No. 9, "The Bachelorette" – No. 17 and "Ugly Betty" – No. 18. As the Network aired the No. 1 scripted show for the 7th straight week in the key young adult sales demo, the "Grey's Anatomy" season closer represented TV's highest-rated scripted series broadcast in nearly 4 months – since an episode of "House" on 2/5/08, which had the advantage of following an installment of "American Idol." Trailing only Fox's Tuesday and Wednesday finales for "Idol," ABC aired 3 of the Top 5 most-watched television shows of the week: "Dancing w/Stars Results" – No. 3, "Dancing with the Stars" – No. 4 and "Grey's Anatomy" – No. 5.

A note about increasing DVR penetration and year-to-year rating comparisons: Year-to-year rating trends based on the Live + Same Day data stream may be somewhat distorted by the level of DVR penetration in the Nielsen sample, which has jumped from 16% at the same point in 2006-07, up to more than 24% currently. More viewers are watching shows on their own timetables, which may not be reflected in the overnight next day numbers. The only truly valid year-to-year comparison would be one based on the Live + 7 Day metric, once those stats are released by Nielsen.

Monday

"Dancing with the Stars" (8:00-9:05 p.m.)

Ranking No. 1 in its time period for the 10th consecutive week (on each telecast this season), ABC's "Dancing with the Stars" posted a dominant victory in its Monday finale. In its 8 o'clock time slot, "DWTS" defeated second-place Fox's season finale of "Bones" by 8.9 million viewers (19.2 million vs. 10.3 million) and by 29% in Adults 18-49 (4.4/13 vs. 3.4/10)

- Attracting its biggest audience in 6 weeks (since 04/07/08), "Dancing with the Stars" qualified as Monday's most-watched television program for the 10th time in as many weeks. It outdrew the No. 2 show of the night, Fox's season finale of "House," by 2.8 million viewers ("House" = 16.4 million from 9:00-10:00 p.m.).

"The Bachelorette" (9:05-11:00 p.m.)

Drawing an average audience of 8.1 million viewers and a 2.9/7 in Adults 18-49 in its premiere against season finale competition on the other nets, "The Bachelorette" took second place in its time period among its core audience of Women 18-34 (3.5/9).

- "The Bachelorette" built its audience across each of the key adult demographics from its first hour to its second hour: Adults 18-34 (2.1/6 to 2.6/7), Adults 18-49 (2.8/7 to 3.0/8) and Adults 25-54 (3.5/8 vs. 3.6/9).

Tuesday

Posting its top numbers on the night in 6 months (since 11/27/07), ABC earned second place to Fox on the final Tuesday of the season in Total Viewers (16.3 million) and Adults 18-49 (4.2/11).

"Dancing with the Stars Results" (9:00-11:00 p.m.)

In its sixth season finale, ABC's "Dancing with the Stars" produced season-high numbers on the night and posted a convincing victory its 2-hour time period in both Total Viewers (20.1 million) and Adults 18-49 (5.4/14). The show topped all 4 half-hours in Viewers, and after overcoming an "Idol"-fueled "Hell's Kitchen" at 9:30 p.m. in Adults 18-49, ranked No. 1 in each of its final 3 half-hours in the key young adult sales demo. Also worth noting from 9:00-10:00 p.m., "DWTS" topped the second hour of CBS' 2-hour season finale of "NCIS" by 1.5 million viewers (19.4 million vs. 17.9 million). Surging from its lead-in and gaining audience throughout its telecast, the finale grew by 2.4 million viewers

(18.8 million to 21.2 million) and by 23% in Adults 18-49 (4.8/12 to 5.9/16) Olympic champion figure skater Kristi Yamaguchi won the ABC dance competition this season, becoming just the second woman to win the mirror ball trophy in the show's history.

- Generating the top Tuesday numbers of its sixth season in viewers and young adults, the "Dancing with the Stars" finale attracted ABC's second-highest numbers in the time period this season, its best results since November – since 11/27/07.
- On all 9 of its telecasts on the night during its sixth season, "DWTS" qualified as Tuesday's second-most-watched TV show to "American Idol."

Thursday

With season finales for "Ugly Betty" and "Grey's Anatomy," ABC towered over its Thursday night competition, which included summer season premieres on Fox ("So You Think You Can Dance" from 8:00-10:00 p.m.) and NBC ("Last Comic Standing" from 9:30-11:00 p.m.). During primetime, ABC beat out second-place Fox by 6.3 million viewers (15.0 million vs. 8.7 million) and by 60% in Adults 18-49 (5.6/16 vs. 3.5/10). On the heels of its Thursday night May Sweep victory, ABC won its 5th consecutive Thursday with Adults 18-49. The Net also dominated Thursday in the other two key adult demos: AD18-34 (5.2/16) and AD25-54 (6.5/17).

- ABC attracted its biggest Thursday audience in more than 1 year and its highest Adult 18-49 number on the evening since season premiere Thursday in September – since 5/17/07 and 9/27/07, respectively.

Editors Please Note: ABC's 2-hour season finale for "Lost" will air this coming Thursday (5/29/08) from 9:00-11:00 p.m.

"Ugly Betty" (8:00-9:00 p.m.)

Opposite stiff competition in the 8 o'clock hour, including Fox's season premiere of "So You Think You Can Dance" and NBC's "Deal or No Deal," ABC's "Ugly Betty" took a solid second place in Total Viewers (8.8 million) and Adults 18-49 (2.8/9), while ranking No. 1 with Women 25-54 (4.7/13).

- Posting its top numbers since January (1/24/08) in viewers and young adults, "Betty" finished out its sophomore season growing its overall audience for 3 weeks straight and its Adult 18-49 audience for 2 consecutive weeks.

"Grey's Anatomy" (9:00-11:00 p.m.)

In its fourth-season finale, "Grey's Anatomy" shot to the top of its 2-hour time period and was far and away the No. 1 TV show on Thursday in Total Viewers (18.1 million) and Adults 18-49 (7.0/19). In fact ABC's "Grey's" overshadowed the second-highest rated shows of the evening by 7.8 million viewers and by 100% in Adults 18-49 – NBC's "Deal or No Deal" = 10.3 million viewers and Fox's season premiere of "So You Think You Can Dance" = 3.5/10 in AD18-49. The ABC medical drama concluded its season, marking its 40th straight original telecast as Thursday's No. 1 TV show in Adults 18-49 – No. 1 on every single original airing since premiering on the evening in 2006.

- "Grey's Anatomy" season closer qualified as TV's highest-rated scripted series telecast in nearly 4 months among Adults 18-49 – since an episode of "House" on 2/5/08, which had the advantage of following an episode of "American Idol."
- In Total Viewers and Adults 18-49, "Grey's" generated ABC's strongest performance in the time period in more than 1 year – since 5/3/07 and 5/17/07, respectively. In addition, it was the series' largest audience since November and its highest young adult number since January – since 11/15/07 and 1/10/08, respectively.

Saturday

With ABC Sports' coverage of the 2008 NBA Eastern Conference Finals game between the Boston Celtics and the Detroit Pistons (Game 3), ABC won Saturday night in both Total Viewers (4.8 million) and Adults 18-49 (1.8/7), beating its nearest competition on the evening by 38% in the key young adult sales demographic (1.3/5 - Fox).

- ABC was up over the same night last year, when it also aired an NBA Conference Finals Game (San Antonio-Utah), by 12% in Total Viewers and by 20% in Adults 18-49 (4.3 million and 1.5/6 on 5/26/07).
- The NBA Playoff game stood as Saturday's No. 1 TV program in viewers, as well as across all key adult (AD18-34/AD18-49/AD25-54) and men demos (M18-34/M18-49/M25-54).

Sunday

With an all-repeat lineup ("AFV"/"Home Edition"/"Desperate Housewives"/"Brothers & Sisters"), ABC earned second place on Sunday in Adults 18-49 (1.1/4) to Fox's NASCAR race coverage, beating CBS by 10% (1.0/4) and NBC by 22% (0.9/4), even though both nets aired some original programming on the evening.
