LONDON GAY MEN'S CHORUS PLAY CANNIZARO FESTIVAL

THE UK's largest and best-known gay choir will perform in the open air as part of the 2004 Cannizaro Park Festival in Wimbledon on July 11th. The choir will be performing an eclectic programme taking in everything from classical favourites including Verdi Barbr and Taverner to spirituals and the ubiquitous show tunes from Chicago and A Chorus Line. The evening kicks off at 7.30pm and tickets are now on sale priced £18 - £22 and are available from the box office on 0870 9076 3834 or they can be purchased online from www.cannizarofestival.com. The London Gay Men's Chorus are one of the most well travelled ensembles in the world so this promises to be a uniquely rewarding evening in the London concert going calendar.

THT AND LAMBETH POLICE LAUNCH GHB AWARENESS INITIATIVE

LAMBETH has one of the highest concentrations of LGBT people in London along with an astonishing 16 gay venues with most of Vauxhall's clubs falling under the jurisdiction of the borough. GHB/GHL has emerged as the recreational drug of choice for an increasing number of clubbers but it, of course, can be fatal. As it is mostly used in liquid form anyone who takes it can never be sure of the amount they are taking. Lambeth's LGBT Liaison Officers and a THT outreach worker will be conducting 2 outreach stands per month at LGBT venues within Lambeth. The first club to host the stand will be Action on July 17th. Glyn Thomas, Senior Detached Work Development Officer from THT said: "It's great that we can work with the police on this issue. We have different approaches but both of us have the same aims and that is to educate about GHB use and to cut down on the amount of people ending up in hospital."

ABI ADVISES OVER HIV INSURANCE

THE Association of British Insurers (ABI) is planning to establish an independent multidisciplinary working group of experts and key stakeholders to advise the insurance industry on policy developments affecting HIV and insurance. So far THT and Pinkfinance.com have been invited to join the group. Richard Walsh, Head of Health at the ABI said: "The insurance industry is committed to fairness and treating people with respect. This consultation exercise is about putting that commitment into practice." For more information check out www.abi.org.uk.

ART AT THE GLOBE

THERE are many ways of coming to terms with adversity and one outlet that many people find therapeutic is art. As we know it can express a whole host of emotions so it'll come as no surprise that one group that has embraced this is those who are HIV positive. A new exhibition called '...And Why Not!' features artworks in which HIV + people express themselves through still life and self-portraits. The Exhibition by Martin and friends is at the Globe Centre, 159 Mile End Road, E1 4AQ and runs until July 29th.

TUC CALLS FOR PENSION PAY OUT FOR GAYS

THE TUC has called on the government to change the law so that gay workers and their partners can have the same rights to a pension as their straight work mates. TUC General Secretary Brendan Barber said: "Lesbian and gay workers have much to thank this Government for. Without its progressive reforms, we would still be contending with Section 28, official homophobia would still be alive and kicking, there would be no recognition of same sex relationships and gay employees would have precious few employment rights." She went on to note that all this good work was being undermined by the government's stance on gay pensions.

THE BIG BAGHDAD BALLS UP!

Fanny does Baghdad

HEAD OFFICE has just returned from Baghdad for the handing back of Iraq to the Iraqi people. The United Nations had asked us to advise them on the possibility of opening a Baghdad Branch of G.S.H.O. and so our chief supreme Fanny Felch was deployed as International Gay Scene Envoy and his mission was to establish links with the local gay community and to introduce Iraq's first gay bar.

Over the past few weeks Fanny managed to secure bar premises and although the site was a recently bombed open-plan fishmongers, with a bit of work it had scrubbed up well, despite the stifling stench. She called the bar 'George's Bush' and enlisted the talents of native underground drag legend Arafatima The Baghdad Dyhyag to host the opening night. By way of a gimmick the bar also doubled as a beauty parlour offering a variety of 'wartime inspired' treatments. Unfortunately the bar sparked too much controversy before it had even opened.

Fanny had attracted unwelcome attention from the powers that be after leaving umpteen messages for Kofi Anan inviting him to come along to have a 'Glass of Cherie' and a complimentary 'Chemical Warfare Face Peel'. The events that followed led to British Primadonna Minister Lionel Blair calling Fanny a national disgrace. The PM ordered Fanny's immediate extradition back to the UK and the bar was closed down on its opening night.

A large glass of Cherie please

As the story goes... when the authorities turned up to question Fanny at George's Bush they were persuaded to watch the opening night's entertainment. Needless to say, they were not impressed with the obligatory stripper who sent the crowd crazy when he launched his 'Weapon of Ass Destruction'. They were similarly appalled by the 'Privates On Parade' finale featuring a live squaddie sex show which culminated with the audience being sprayed with white powder at the point of ejaculation. Going by the name Anthrax Climax all participating soldiers were promptly arrested on the spot. The bar was also condemned by Health & Safety as it wasn't so much open plan as was missing a roof. They also took offence at the outdoor urinal guarded by toilet attendants calling themselves Pisskeepers.

Urinal

Meanwhile we at Head Office are left to rue the disappearance of our boss Hilda Hardcore who would never make a cock up of things like Fanny managed to.

MAKE PISS NOT WAR!

SCENE SURGERY

WITH MATRON

IN my role as Matron at Scene Surgery I see many patients that have endured physical trauma as a consequence of their extreme lifestyles. Whether you are a bar-hopper, a round-the-clock-clubber, or you work on the scene, you have no doubt suffered side effects of some description. I am here to address these issues, to ease your pain and lick your wounds.

DJ's NECK

THIS week we are addressing a recent phenomenon exclusive to Disc Jockeys which I am going to call DJ's Neck. This is a condition that lots of Club Land's DJ's and many more hobby DJ's are becoming affected by. It is caused by standing up for hours on end with your head bent forward, and is further exacerbated by wearing headphones half on your head clamped between the ear and the shoulder when in the mix. By way of comparison it is very similar to Who's Whiplash which has been around since The Dark Ages, whereby repeated bobbing of the head whilst giving a blow job can take its toll on the upper vertebrae. If it isn't treated then it is not uncommon to see prostitutes ending up with a prominent hump and having to claim social security benefits as they find it difficult to get work with a hunchback. So to stop the rot before it kicks in, I have a solution to this pressing problem so that all DJ's out there don't get prematurely humped.

Steve Pitron & Mikey D at Matron's Surgery

All DJ's are being issued with Head Office approved neck braces to limit back and neck strain photo sported by DJ's Steve Pitron & Mikey D who both suffer badly from this crippling condition. The brace may hinder mixing ability but I assure clubbers don't mind a fucked-up mix or two, safe in the knowledge that the DJ's vertebrae are protected. And although it is not necessarily a good look, after consultation with the DJ Booth Lobby it has been agreed that it is a step in the right direction. So don't be a pain in the neck...

IBIZA REMIXED

MATT JOSHUA discovers there's more to Ibiza than clubbing

A week prior to leaving for "The White Island" I confessed I was an Ibiza virgin. I was immediately bombarded with a regimental itinerary of where to go and what to do: "Space on Sunday, DC10 on Monday, Pacha on Tuesday" ... blah blah blah and Solomon Grundy. Was this to be a holiday, in the proper sense of the word, or a drug-fuelled disco marathon? Having (barely) survived the White Party London weekend I decided to rain check the rave and ditch on the disco. Ibiza without the clubs?

After reading Stephen Armstrong's "The White Island" I now know that it's not just recently that Ibiza has been party central. Around 650BC the Carthaginians turned the island into a place of worship for their goddess of sex, Tanit, and the Island is named after Bez, the lord of the dance. So for over two thousand years pleasure seekers have flocked to the island to rock and fuck.

I thought I'd be the exception and envisaged long hot days lounging by the pool, sampling fresh seafood and perhaps have a bit of a holiday fling. Reverie was brought abruptly to a halt with the booming announcement of a four hour delay at Gatwick and the excessively patriotic abundance of England football shirts in the departure area. For all it's good points, Ibiza still has San Antonio, destination of louts and the like.

Collecting luggage labels at the carousel became a game of "spot the pool" as the Respect Holiday baggage labels are red and quite distinctive. I spotted a couple of Heaven regulars and made my way over to them. We met Kevin the rep outside and we're shown to our buses that were to transfer us to our accommodation. A perfect antithesis to the Chingford Massiva, Kevin turned on the camp and delivered his "Welcome to Ibiza speech". I was staying at Lido Llobet apartments in Figueretas, bang on the beachfront.

I was pleasantly surprised. Clean, spacious, comfortable, nice balcony, and most importantly, it felt secure. These rooms can sleep four – two in the bedroom and two in the lounge, on sofa beds. I guess four would be cosy, but if you simply use holiday accommodation for sleeping, changing, occasional eating and horizontal aerobics: well, what more does one need?

Decided to check out the local bars at around midnight, starting at the Island Bar, which is at the end of the main drag, right on the sea front – the Old Town end. Oh Toto, we're not in the West End now! Those spirit measures! Round the corner and up to Cube Bar and then further up to Bar Kitsch (by name and nature), and finally ending up over the road to Monroe's. Like its namesake, this bar is a total homage to the blonde bombshell. I also discovered they have internet facilities in the back, one Euro for half an hour. Got acquainted with the rather cute Australian barman, and suddenly it was Sunday morning.

The one downside of Lido Llobet apartments is that it is quite straight. In fact a lot of the other apartments are residential, or at least timeshare. The pool is hetero heaven, with noisy kids and poppable lilos. However, just a short walk up the hill to the other Respect accommodation is the Canit Hotel. The Canit has a pool and poolside café. This very popular homo hangout is the perfect place to booze, cruise, have a spot of lunch and top up the tan.

The view from the Canit is stunning. "Oi Dolly!" Who do we bump into? Geoff, Michael, Rusty and half the Box crowd. A lot of the "serial self-indulgers" have done Ibiza for years and tend to come out for the beginning and end of the Summer season. Popped down to Bar Magnus for Kevin's "What to do and where to go talk". It was very informative and hilariously camp. A Respect bar tour was arranged for that evening, but I decided to skip it in favour of the Geoff Llowellyn bar crawl. Fast forward to the evening (did I mention the copious amounts of sangria and bumping into a notorious Covent Garden coke dealer?). A quick walk (like speedy bloody Gonzales) round past the castle to the old town. The Compton Street of Ibiza Old Town is Calle de la Virgen (you couldn't make it up). On this street you'll find bars like Teatro, Cargo, Galeria 22, Leon and Capricho. On the way to Calle de la Virgen there's Bar Red and La Murralla at Sa Carrossa. One of the most popular bars is Angelo; with its outdoor split-layered terrace it's perfect for having a bowty and a vada.

No clubs? Well, Anfora is not really a club like Heaven or Trade, it's a little dancefloor, a handful of bars and something called a "dark room", but it's actually built into the hill, so it's a sort of "disco cave". So a visit to Auntie Flora's wasn't really clubbing. Having got the social shenanigans out of the way, Monday was spent simply lying in the sun, getting my blackness back. The seafont at Figueretas has a good mix of restaurants, and of course all the rooms come equipped with cooker and adequate cutlery and crockery. For the best restaurants though head to the Old Town. Tuesday morning 7am I was woken up by a knock on the door. Immediately I thought "Oh fuck, someone's died". How pleasantly surprised was I when the cute Scottish guy from two doors down pushed a G&T into my hand and said, "Thought I'd be room service." Never one to look a gift horse and all that, it was a case of "Give me ten minutes" – hanging onto the G&T, obviously. Now that's why we go on gay holidays, right? Tuesday afternoon involved a trip to the nudist/gay beach, a fifteen minute drive away, to Playa Es Cavallet. This beautiful stretch of beach runs for a couple of miles and is edged by pine forest. Obviously a prime cruising ground, with lots of rumpy pump in the dunes. Unfortunately, the wind was up and so were the jelly fish, so we couldn't get in the water. On Wednesday the sight of Formentera Island in the distance spawned talk of a boat trip. Small world syndrome ensued and we bumped into a carry Geoffie lass that used to go to DITPM when it was at The End. Donna does boat trips, or rather organises them. Formentera, one word: Paradise. Thursday was spent doing the scenic historical thing, checking out the architecture of the Old Town and castle, then to-ing and fro-ing between the pool and the local beach. Friday, much of the same: a few pool-side fumbles and a troll round the ramparts.

"Ramparts", sounds dirty doesn't it? Well, it was Friday night, out for dinner at Mama Pomota in the Old Town. Then it was Saturday and time to go home. Okay, so I didn't get to go over to San Antonio – but it's all egg and chips and Ing-ger-land, Ing-ger-land. No luv. And I didn't go inland – too hot and sweaty. But I did chill out, met some fabulous people and had an excellent time. Ibiza equals Bacchanalian excess, and of course being poofs on a gay holiday there's bound to be boys and booze involved. But it can be done without the clubs.

We had the pleasure of catching up with sexy young actor Luke Evans on the eve of his debut in 'Hardcore', a play by Jonathan Hall that was well received at the Edinburgh Festival, which deals with the porn industry in the UK.

It's going to be hot.

LUKE GOES HARDCORE

LUKE EVANS' rise to fame has been meteoric. He first caught our eye when he played the role of Billy, Boy George's sexually confused friend, in the hit musical Taboo. He then went on to play one of the most macho roles in musical theatre – that of Chris in Miss Saigon, on tour. He's now about to tackle his first role in which he doesn't have to sing – the role of Craig, who has starred in two hardcore porn films, one in the UK and one in the States. I wanted to find out why the role interested him in the first place: "It wasn't just the part of Craig that interested me, but the whole premise of the play excited me as well. Craig's a cool character and I see a lot of me in him – not that I've been in porn films – but his mannerisms are quite like my own, and I also get to use my own accent (which for the record is Welsh), so that's quite nice as well as I'm usually cockneying up.

There are only four characters in Hardcore with the other three being virgins to the porn industry, all of whom have different reasons for wanting to do their stuff in front of the camera. But what will audiences take away from the play? "There are quite a few different messages. It shows what porn really is – false. It's a vision of the best sex that you could ever have – all the time, and it's not like that in real life and it's also about how the four characters got to where they are now, and why they wanted to do it – their backgrounds."

Although a gay play with a gay man in the lead role, straight audiences in Edinburgh were quite entertained by it although as Luke points out: "from the name Hardcore, you can guess that it's going to be quite in your face and I'm sure it's going to be educating for those people who come and see it in London." Luke has never made any bones about the fact that he's gay but did being gay help him in playing a gay role and hinder the others in the cast who are straight? "Two of them are straight in real life and one of them has never done any gay stuff before I don't think." At this point he asks his stage colleagues whether this was their first time as a gay – the answer is 'yes' and they also admit to enjoying the whole experience of being gay – well at least on the stage at any rate! "We're all actors playing parts and they play a very good gays," he says.

Luke does gay very well, which is not surprising, but it was encouraging to hear that he's never experienced any negative effects from being 'out' as an actor. I was keen to know what made him come out in the first place when so many other actors try to conceal it: "I did it for myself. I didn't do it for anything else – just my own self worth. I wasn't happy living a lie as I'd been living a lie for the majority of my life, so performing in Taboo was a good time to come out, and it hasn't bothered my career at all."

Indeed it hasn't, as immediately after Taboo he went on to play Chris in Miss Saigon, which according to Luke "is one of the toughest roles in musical theatre, and if a casting director was going to look at me and think 'Oh he's queer, he couldn't take this part', well to be honest I wouldn't want to work with him anyway."

It's that kind of thinking that has got this prodigiously talented young actor to where he is now – if only all actors of his generation were so candid, and had his courage to come out.

> Hardcore is at The Pleasance Theatre, Carpenters Mews, N7 until July 31st. Box Office: 020 7609 1800.

LEAPING TO VICTORY - James Swain winner of the Men's Open competition in 6-1, 6-2

Alexey Karpukhin playing in the Men's Open Semi Final

THINK of tennis and most people's thoughts would jump to tight stretched nylon over the pert hard buns of Henman or the rippling back on the hirsute manly figure of Sampras beating the crap out of the balls at Wimbledon (or is that just this pervy sports watcher?). Less people are aware that just up the road, Battersea Park is home to the thoroughly gay annual Tennis London International Tournament.

Currently the largest lesbian and gay tennis tournament in the UK, this year marks the 9th annual gathering of the guys and gals with a good grip and a mastery over their balls, and is one of over 32 tournaments held on the growing international Gay and Lesbian Tennis Association (GLTA) circuit, taking place in such glamorous locations as New York, Los Angeles, Amsterdam, Milan and Battersea. It also provides the perfect excuse to mix with fit athletes that bat for our team, as it were.

Anyway, we digress. Over 150 slayers, from novice to national level, from the UK, Europe and the USA as well as Australia, Japan, South Africa and their first ever entry from Vancouver Canada, met for the 4 days of matches. They were seeded according to standard club level criteria in bands from Open (the highest) through to Levels A, B, C and D.

With more than 14 courts in Battersea Park, there was plenty of space for the keenly fought matches and after an initial couple of rounds, the action soon had the sweat dripping from the brows of the crowds as new ball after new ball was punished in what was sometimes a world-class display of racketry, as we went through quarters and semis, then finals in each band. Performances of note included the Open Mens semi between the cute-as-a-button Alexey Karpukhin, hailing from the east but now living in London, and James Swain, the latter of which went on to win the Open tournament.

It was a hot and sunny weekend with only minor disruptions due to Wimbledon-weather. The tournament concluded with an evening banquet, auction and raffle that magnificently raised over £1,000 for the Albert Kennedy.

▶ FILM OF THE WEEK

FAHRENHEIT 9/11 (15)

MICHAEL MOORE'S provocative Cannes-winning documentary is a startlingly powerful piece of filmmaking that's full of emotion, drama, humour and information about George W's personal war on Iraq. It's assembled brilliantly, starting with the 2000 election madness and ending about a week ago! It's well-researched, and full of clips that chill us to the bone. If you already loathe Bush and his cronies, this will be the final nail in their coffin (and you'll marvel that they're not in prison already). If you're one of his supporters, you'll probably think this is just a pack of lies. Sadly, it's not. Rating: ★★★★★★★★

> THE STORY OF THE WEEPING CAMEL (U)

comes from Mongolia, and it's a deceptively simple tale of camel herders trying to restore the natural order in a world gone mad. Entertainingly well-made, it'll make you want a cuddly camel all your own! Rating: ★★★★★★★★

< AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 DAYS (PG) is less a remake of the classy 1956 epic and more a Jackie Chan action comedy with Steve Coogan pulling buddy duty. But it's good fun, packed with witty cameos and soaring adventure. Rating: ★★★★★★★★

FALCONS (15) stars Keith Carradine as a loner in Iceland who goes on the run from the cops with a quirky woman and her pet falcon. It's a bit too odd Rating: ★★★★★★★★ to really work, but it's also engaging and surprisingly emotional.

TWO formulaic thrillers that will only thrill undemanding audiences: TWISTED (15) stars Ashley Judd as a cop investigating a predictable series of murders. WALKING TALL (15) at least has The Rock in its vacuous Bush-era tale of righteous revenge. Double yawn. Both get ★★★★★★★★

LESBIAN & GAY FILM FESTIVAL ON TOUR features highlights from this year's LGGFF, including excellent opening-night drama THE EVENT < and the clever closing-night caper ROBIN'S HOOD. There's also Bruce LaBruce's incendiary black comedy about terrorists RASPBERRY REICH, the sexy rom-com EATING OUT, and Stuart Who's drug-fuelled TWISTED. Add both shorts and old faves and you won't want to miss it! At the Curzon Soho until 18th July.

RECOMMENDED...

- 1. FAHRENHEIT 9/11 • Whether or not you agree with Michael Moore's anti-Bush views, this is a must-see.
- 2. SHREK 2 • Thoroughly enjoyable sequel that's just as irreverent as the first film and has some great new characters.
- 3. MEAN GIRLS • One of the most intelligently written and viciously hilarious teen comedies in years.
- 4. BLUE GATE CROSSING • Superbly written and played teen romance from Taiwan, with a sexuality twist.
- 5. STORY OF THE WEEPING CAMEL • Excellent drama from Mongolia about, yes really, a couple of camels.

HOT OFF THE PRESS...

AFTER his hilarious Prince Charming in Shrek 2, Rupert Everett will voice a CGI fox in the first Chronicles of Narnia film, The Lion, The Witch And The Wardrobe • Meanwhile, Gary Oldman will voice of the villainous General Grievous in Star Wars Episode III, which finally arrives in cinemas next May. • Colin Firth and Kevin Bacon will co-star in the celebrity murder drama Somebody Loves You • And Stars & Hutch 2 is in the works. Apparently Ben Stiller and Owen Wilson wanted to get Charlie's Angels involved the comic action, but only Cameron Diaz has signed on.

▶ DVD OF THE WEEK

LOST IN TRASLATION (15)

THIS Oscar-winning drama is sheer cinematic perfection that gets even better when you watch it again. Bill Murray and Scarlett Johansson are flawless as lost souls in Tokyo who rescue each other from terminal boredom. But it's Sofia Coppola's insightful, lyrical writing and direction that make this film hilariously funny, powerfully emotional and, best of all, utterly unpredictable. Not only does the film look gorgeous, but it also has a delicate ethereal rawness that makes it essential viewing. If you think it's dull, you're simply not paying attention! DVD extras include deleted scenes, interviews and a behind-the-scenes doc (Momentum). Rating: ★★★★★★★★

BEATS&PIECES

BY BRENT NICHOLLS

steve.pitron.04.vol.1

Album: STEVE PITRON APRIL 2004
Label: DJ PROMO
Style: CLUB HOUSE

THERE is no need to introduce Steve Pitron as he is one of the most popular and well-liked DJs on the London gay scene. Apart from numerous international dates, Steve can be found regularly spinning his funky magic at places like Beyond, Crash Afterhours and Element. Steve's sound is best characterized as funky, disco dipped, vocal drenched and commercially adventurous (who else would dare drop the original version of 'Pump Up The Jam' by Technotronic at 3am in the morning?). He's also a DJ who likes his dance floors packed with the full hands-in-the-air effect, something the promoters like too which accounts for his success. On his latest DJ promo '04.Vol 1' Steve sticks very close to his dance floor formula all the way to the sample overlays and track order. In fact, this CD could very well be straight from one of his sets at Beyond. It is nothing we haven't heard before, but if anthems are what you want mixed in that unique Steve Pitron way then that is exactly what you will get. Opening with the Skylark remixes of 'Shined On Me' by the Praise Cats, he drops the acapella of Kelis' Milkshake throughout... very clever. He continues on with the Shapeshifters massive floor filler 'Lola's Theme' topped off with a sample from Dirty Funkers (although I found the sample overlay on this track a little distracting from the brilliance of the tune itself). Other tracks on this indulgent party CD include Sykes & Sugarstarr's 'Ticket To Ride', the Major Boys' remix of Bob Marley's 'Sun Is Shining', Stonebridge's vocal anthem 'Put Em High', a bootleg remix of Kylie Minogue's 'Slow' and a fusion between Kujay Dada's 'Young Hearts' with Kathy Brown's house classic 'Turn Me On'. Also look out for other cleverly dropped samples and acapellas such as Tweet's 'Boogie Tonight' over Bobby Bianco's 'Shelltoe' creating a brand new tune within itself. Put this CD on at any pre-club soiree and watch your guest be gagging for more of the same. Have a listen to sample of this CD on www.seenqueen.com/music.

▷ SINGLES

Title: Forca
Artist: Nelly Furtado
Label: Dreamworks
FOR someone so petite looking, Nelly's music really is larger than life. Forca is lifted from her surprisingly powerful recent LP Folklore. Hill Billy banjos add a barn-storming jig to an otherwise Spanish themed, almost carnival-esque romp. Meanwhile Ms Furtado showcases those tuneful lungs and never strays from the land of pop.
Rating: ★★★★★★☆☆

Title: Shoot Your Gun
Artist: 20-20s
Label: Heavenly

20-20s is yet another spunky young indie band, fresh faced and eager for glory. Shoot Your Gun is a pounding release of youthful frustration complete with brooding and overemphasized vocals, a nod to rock's hall of fame, climatic guitars and dramatic lyrics. Supergrass fans will recognize them from their tour.
Rating: ★★★★★★☆☆

▷ SINGLE OF THE WEEK

Title: See It In A Boy's Eyes
Artist: Jamelia
Label: Parlophone
JAMELIA and Chris Martin of Coldplay co-writing sounds of rather unholy alliance. Against all the odds, their contrasting styles produce a distinctive piece built around a simple and melancholy piano musing. A sad but somehow glamorous edge to this almost funereal track reveals a hidden depth to Jamelia.
Rating: ★★★★★★☆☆

▷ ALBUMS

Title: Kings Of Convenience
Artist: Riot On An Empty Street
Label: Source
KINGS of Convenience hail from Norway and quite probably sport Jesus sandals. Clearly, they've digested the works of Burt Baccarach, Simon & Garfunkel and Nick Drake. Breezy ballads with poetic lyrics and lots of unplugged classical guitar make for genteel listening. Soul searchers and genteel types should find this manna from heaven.
Rating: ★★★★★★☆☆
Perfect for chilling out.

Title: Freestylers
Artist: Raw As F**K
Label: Against The Grain
IN the late 1990s Freestylers emerged as the acceptable but faceless faces of the underground breakbeat demi-monde. Since then they've been reasonably prolific and have refused to join the devil's payroll - no remixing Britney Spears for them. You can expect b-boy lyrics, fat bass-lines, junglist breaks, electro grooves, and much variation.

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS MAN?

Like one in two gay men in London, he's not vaccinated against Hepatitis B, the life threatening disease that's 100 times more infectious than HIV.

Unlike HIV, Hepatitis B is preventable by vaccination. It's free, convenient and quick at Sorted.

So don't get caught out, get Sorted. Just walk into one of four London services for gay men.

For more information about Hepatitis B visit www.hepinfo.org

Sorted is a hepatitis prevention campaign managed by Chelsea and Westminster Healthcare NHS Trust. Portrayed by a model.

VITAL VINYL

> ON THA DEX WITH STEVE PITRON

▶ FLOWER POWER 'FLOWER POWER' (Oxyd Records)

THE ever consistent Oxyd Records power up to unleash one of the last records to emerge from the Miami Winter Conference earlier this year. This will unquestionably end up being one of the mainstays throughout the summer season on the White Isle - and beyond! A Clattering rhythm pounds along remorselessly from the off, underscored by a smooth pumped electro bass. In comes a wicked electrified acoustic guitar bridge before giving way to lashings of strings. Think Silicone Soul (minus the naff vocals...) and you're half way there. Already No#1 in Charts from Stonebridge and Wally Lopez, this is ready to do the damage this summer. A 'must have'.

▶ CE CE PENISTON 'FINALLY' (White Label)

ALMOST completely missed this one as the thought of hearing another version of Ce Ce Peniston's much remixed/re-re-released/bootlegged classic from 1991 had me reaching for the razor blades. But it this is simply awesome. Anyone who loves Kid Creme's output will wet themselves for this. 'Finally' is turned 180 degrees on it's head, into a naughty, dirty, funky, bass-heavy, percussive monster. When played on a big sound-system this should come with a health warning - dancefloor damage guaranteed! CeCe never sounded so good. Worth losing an arm or a leg to obtain.

▶ IKON 'DO YOU DREAM?' (Jalapeno Records)

RELEASED on more than 12" - but you need only concern yourself with one. Featuring more mixes than you could shake a stick at. Separate the wheat from the chaff by heading straight for the Steve Angelo Remix. Less electro than some of his recent offerings, this will please those who liked M-Gee's 'Can't Let Go' an anthemic Bodyserve featuring Mica Paris. This gem features vocals from Alison Limerick, for whom a come-back is surely long overdue...

▶ HATIRAS 'MONEY SHOT' (Fine Tune)

HATIRAS is best known for his biggest and only chart hit, 2001's 'Spaced Invader' - which still sounds fresh three years later. He has continued to produce a steady flow of releases since, without ever matching his earlier success - until now. Featuring the vocal talents of Tara, this truly rocks. Hatiras' mixes are good enough but French DJ/Producer Antoine Clamaran takes the track to new heights with a filthy yet groovy remix that drags this all the way to the finishing line. Undeniably influenced by Benny Benassi's 'Satisfaction' (although far less electro), Antoine pumps it up and turns out one of his best mixes. Huge breakdowns and filtered drops, this will put London's finest sound systems through their paces. Satisfaction guaranteed...

▶ OLAV BASOSKI 'WATER FIRE RHYTHM LOVE' (EP2)

YOU'LL either love this or absolutely hate it. Olav Basoski has made some great records over the years, but his output can be a little formulaic at times. This sees Olav fuse house rhythms with reggae samples. It certainly sounds like nothing else around at the moment - and that surely can't be a bad thing? Think Musical Youth, off their fucking 'Dutchie'.

REVOLTAGE

Here we are again filling you in with this week's vital info... Wow! Daft Punk have remixed Franz Ferdinand's 'Take Me Out'. They stick close to the original but have turned the crazy factor up a bit. We are also loving the remix of 'Heartbeats' by The Knife. Out now as you read this: bootleg kings IDC have an original track 'Scratch'. Mega is an understatement! Try to track

Freeform 5 and Soulwax remixes of 'Rocket Ride' by Felix Da Housecat for that futuristic disco action. Ooooh!

So, Whitey are having a re-release of their club smash 'Leave It All Behind'. Extremely marvellous and fantastic in its own right but still no sign of the Glimmer Twins re-edit (given out to a few lucky DJs) anywhere on the official release schedule. Make sure you check out Trailer Trash at On The Rocks in Shoreditch. With resident DJs Bones & Ramsey with their dirty electro-disco and twisted house. First Friday of every month. A Tasty Tim recommendation! Keeping on the Tasty tip, check out his T-Total mixes of Seamus Haji & ATFC's 'Ooh Ooh Ah' on Big Love Records, there are a few white labels out and about - guess who the surprise vocal is supplied by... Pete Heller (house guru of 'Big Love' and 'Ultra Flava' fame) has recorded a new track featuring Avenue D. Damn you mister postman - where the hell is it?! Jake IX is doing electro toons under the name of Rex The Dog. We have had a sneak preview of two new tracks, 'Frequency' plus 'Italian Blond' and they are the boom! Check his just released down the IDC CD - 'Top 20' where every bootie is a killer. I guess it had to happen; not content with doing covers of 'Hey Mickey', 'Sex Dwarf' and 'Memorabilia', electro drum 'n' bass star John B has done a version of 'Tainted Love'. We are moist with anticipation! Well anyway after Gay Pride what else is there to look forward to... Neil Tennat's special day of course... "HAPPY BIRTHDAY!" Also Happy 17th Birthday to Jonny Slut! Golf Sale continues its avant-garde theme and this week Sunday the 11th it's Princess Julia's turn. She's not one to blow her own trumpet but it's a real must on your social calendar... We're loving Yoshimoto's 'Du What U Do' it's not a peak time party pumper - like the Tommie Sunshine remix of 'Make Up' by The Most out soon on Beauty Case Records - but it chugs along at a fair old pace as did style icon Lotta who unveiled her DJ talents at The Cock the other week. A star is born!

That's all you slags, Princess Julia & Mark Moore X

ARTS BITCHING

WITH FRAULEIN SASHA SELAVIE

POP
JANE BIRKIN
2 Stars! The St. Teresa of Self-Indulgence!

THEATRE
DIRTY BLONDE
> Duke of Yorks. Tel 020 7836 5122.
3 Stars! Feisty but flawed!

The toast of the gay tarts in New York – male and female – Mae West was a full-on drag queen in a woman's body. In her mouth, the sweetest, most innocuous phrases sounded like they'd been dipped in grade-A Gonorrhoea, and that was merely the opening repartee! Sadly, in later life, she descended into gross parody, like a real-life Lola Ferrari with inflatable tits, butt and waist-line! That reality – which Mae could never bring herself to confront – worked to especially cruel contrast in the 1968, sex-change comedy Myra Breckinridge, where she starred with buxom newcomer Raquel Welch, then at the height of her fame! Thereafter, it was down, down, down, with no wig or sequined gown on earth able to disguise her crown's body and skin so loose it flapped in the slightest breeze!

Okay, critics will, quite rightly, sneer, but to die-hard fans – including a virtual Manhattan Island of gay men – Mae was incapable of doing wrong, at any stage in her career! And Dirty Blonde, a storming new evocation of Mae's life, tries its' best to separate the magical bon mots from her too-frequent, maudlin excesses! Sadly, the show's a scattershot success at best, with a lumpy, theatrical structure so crippled it's screaming out for euthanasia! A word of advice to budding playwrights; don't, under any circumstances, start a play with parents planning their future star's fame! Instead, just show it, preferably in the middle of an outrageous, drug-fucked scandal!

But that's the big problem with this show – it plays every scene safer than a gay man in a whole-body condom! Why, even riddled with dental agony, I found myself nodding out on the theatrical equivalent of sleeping pills! Frankly, such tedium is unforgivable. Of all people, West had an electrically lascivious life, especially as the author of sleaze-romps like 'Sex' and 'The Drag', so why sink the show with the lame sub-plot of a sad, male drag-addict finding true 'lurve' with a fellow female fan? Avoid – unless you like your camp sickeningly sweet!

HOT TIPS & OPENINGS

COMEDY
THE ANDY WARHOL SYNDROME
IN the must-see date at Edinburgh Festival, Jenny Eclair performs her new, killingly risqué show. Unmissable.

ART
LONDON YOUTH By Stephen Harwood
ARTIST Stephen Harwood is the Francis Bacon of Twinks. Rendering the sordid, day glow underbelly of inner-city London in gouache and acrylic paints, he captures the private dreams, obsessions and nightmares of adolescence. Like some divine, invisible voyeur, he unearths both his subject's inner selves and the psychological touchstones of their bedrooms and private spaces. Forget Tracy Emin's attempts to strip off urban masks – these paintings are revelations!
> Artbank Gallery, 114 Clerkenwell Eoad EC1. 9th – 31st July,
Tel: 020-7608-3333.

ART
Jamie McLeod's 'MARC ALMOND AND THE LOST BOYS'
I refuse to call photographs as hot as Jamie McLeod's anything except fine art. Working with the expertise and discipline of a classic, 1940s film noir director, he rigorously highlights every nuance and detail in his subjects, whether they're backstage trannies in Istanbul, hugely muscled oil-wrestlers, or Marc Almond moodily interpreting his elusive, often sinister muse. But feast on his work at first hand at his upcoming exhibition.
> The First Out Café, 52 St. Giles' High Street WC2. 13th – 31st July.
Enjoy!

CABARET

BY MATT JOSHUA

am sweating like a long tailed cat in a room full of rocking chairs. He spent his time in the sun and the gym while I spent my time eating and editing my new book.

Oh yeah, have I not mentioned that I have written a novel? It is called, TELL ME TWICE, by Bryan Murphy. It's a love story. 310 pages long. The writing took less than a month but the editing took longer. I have a literary agent in New York City ripping it apart now. Fingers crossed and it will make it into bookstores. I see me now on Richard and Judy promoting it. And of course, I will do Lorraine, love her. It is a story of two men who are brought together by the President of the United States. Is that topical or what I ask you? I am working on the next book now.

Back to the cruise. The ship had 2,500 passengers but never seemed crowded or busy. The surprise for us was there were about 40 gay guys on board. We felt like youngsters since a good number of them had been couples for over two decades while me and the honey have only been together for one decade.

There were guys from Scotland, in kilts every night, several from Australia; men from Toronto; a few from Portsmouth who have seen my show. And Yanks. Nightly we would meet in the disco or the Champs bar till wee hours. I think cruises are for relaxing but after this one, we all said we would need a vacation after this vacation.

There was a lot to do on board but I did not partake in any of it. That would mean leaving my air-conditioned room. I only do that for food. This boat had a rock climbing wall, oh sure, you know I did that, now don't you? In these shoes? There was a passenger talent show. And yes I did enter, ham that I am.

There is another cruise on the same ship in November, going back the same route and I have my hopes that me and the honey can be on it. I am sure by then, I will still be editing my new book. Did Babs Cartland start this way? Maybe I should be taking bee pollen like her. But I am not wearing pink no matter how many books I write.

Memo to self: Bring only clothes with elastic waistbands on trans Atlantic cruises from now on.

The trip was 11 days and the first eight were non-stop water. I hate to get off the boat. I hate heat and love A/C. (oh sorry, that stands for air conditioning. I know that means nothing in this country) consequently, walking around Caribbean Islands means I

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

2 BREWERS, CLAPHAM

CABARET has returned to the front bar at this popular cabaret venue in Clapham so there's no more having to go into the back room to see your favourite artistes anymore - well at least not on a performance footing. There's Starsearch karaoke on Tuesdays from now on, presented by Kevin Walsh with a weekly prize of £25 for the best warbler. Don't forget that the new London Salsa classes and club take place every Monday at 7.30pm with it being £6 for 1 class or £8 for 2 classes.

COMEDY CAMP, BARCODE

THERE'S a sensational line-up at Comedy Camp on July 7th with that anarchic duo Topping & Butch headlining just before they get ready for their Edinburgh shows. There's tremendous support from hilarious Iranian comedian Shappi Khورشandi - who had us rolling in the aisles the last time we saw here and the slight of hand queen herself Mandy Muden.

THE CULVERT, UXBRIDGE

THERE'LL be a splash of the orient down at Uxbridge this Saturday when Lady Imelda takes to the boards at this popular bar and cabaret venue. Who needs the Ladyboys of Bangkok when you've got Lady Imelda - that's all we have to say on the matter. Bette Rinse is back on Wednesday with her Barmy Bingo when there's cash prizes up for grabs. Eyes down for a full house...

PRIDE LONDON 2004

▶ PARADE

▶ PARADE

FRIDAY afternoon and it looked like Pride was going to be one rather sodden affair. Barbed rain down were things like "Big Gay Wash Out" and "Don't Rain On My Parade" and every other rainy cliché imaginable. We all sat sympathising with the poor buggers who were stuck in Finsbury Park trying to pitch marquees and what not. But Saturday arrived and against all odds the rain held off and the sun came out with the rest of us. The Parade was really well attended with representation from all gay walks of life right across the board. It ran to time and finished up down on the Embankment. Just a short walk up to the Rally, Trafalgar Square was packed, heaving, a brilliant turn out, proving that Pride for many is still very much a political event as well as a bloody good knees up. The Rally was hosted by Jean T and Ida Bar with numerous guest speakers and performers providing a diverse entertaining programme. Included in the speakers were Ken Livingstone, Lord Waheed Alli, Ben Summerskill (Stonewall), Diane Abbot (Labour MP) and Deputy Assistant Commissioner Brian Paddick. Sir Ian McKellan gave a stirring speech driving home the necessity to come out, accept sexuality and be happy, making Pride something to be proud of.

The absolute icing on the cake was the rainbow flag being flown over St. Martin In The Fields church. A brilliant turn out for a well organised event. A short tube ride up to Finsbury Park to Big Gay Out. The main stage was busy throughout the day with a variety of acts ranging in calibre from mediocre (spot the lip-syncers) to the amazing. The different dance tents also subject to degrees of popularity. The Orange tent was kicking, the vibe was out of this world and busy throughout the day. Orange promoter Craig asked us to send big thanks out to everyone who attended the event and extended his thanks to Fan Party who organised the whole shebang! The Pushca/Faceparty open air dance arena was also popular, as was the Trad tent. We went a bit mad on the funfair, almost losing our lunch at one point. The Interflora blessings area was an oasis of calm and tranquillity amidst the madness and multicoloured mayhem. We loved the stewardesses outside "toilet world" and had a little boogie with two giant cuddly teddy bear/monster things. We "oohed" and "aahhed" at the balloon release and of course had to have the obligatory candy floss. Being press and ever curious, we bagged a coveted pink wrist band and snuck backstage and had a bit of a mingle with the celebs. Chatting with organiser Jason Pollock he told us he was very pleased with the event and was having a fantastic day. Hot of the presser, July 2nd 2005 has being booked and Big Gay Out will be returning next year. So it was worth the £25 ticket? With some clubs charging the equivalent (almost) for night out, and taking into account all that was on offer, yes I guess so. If there wasn't something like this on where would we go? How would we remember Pride? Events of this scale are notoriously difficult to organise and can often be marred by an unpredictable downpour. Show your support, have a great time. Start saving for next year's ticket.

AFTER the Pride weekend are you too pooped to party? Or was that all just a dressed rehearsal for the rest of the year's clubbing? Well for you Dirty Trashed Party Monsters let's start with what's going on under the Blue Cube umbrella. If you've been out and about in Soho, pre-Pride, you will have seen the most amazing array of freaks, drag queens and muscle boys under those big Blue Cube umbrellas while they were out promoting the jewel in Pride's sparkling crown, Ruby. At DTPM on Sunday 11th the DT Allstars rock Fabric. Dance Arena 1 has Jim Labisko, Miguel Pillittero, Mark Wilkinson and Justin Ballard all playing two-hour sets, in that order. Lisa German and Malcom Duffy are in Dance Arena 2, with Ariel sandwiched in the middle. David Rosen and Jamie rock Room 3 with the freshest funkier RnB. On Friday the 9th at Fiction Justin Ballard, Miguel Pillittero and Malcom Duffy throw it down on the main floor. Harj and Justin Ballard lay it on thick in The Lounge. The wonder that is Stewart Who? and the irrepresible Fat Tony look after the VIPs. From Blue to Orange, Fusion at the Fridge is sure to blow away those post-Pride blues. The Fusion reactors will reach critical meltdown as Hugh Stevenson, Paul Martin and Steve Pitron hit the decks. Outstanding light shows, a 32 colour laser and a whole box-a-tricks of visual special effects makes Fusion the biggest Friday blow out. Out of the Fridge and into the Fire with the scorchier that is A:M. Stay up all Friday night and beat the early birds or get a little shut-eye and turn up looking fabulous at 7am. The perfect kickstart to the weekend. This week the DJ line up includes Severino, Sharp Boys, David Jimenez. Let your mind flip get into the time slip (well it is A:M) watch that laser til your eyes go wonky. A:M's funky chunky tech house always keeps us glued to that dance floor. In the back room Paul Heron plays a special extended set. Not to be missed. On Saturday night Orange present Element, to be held at super club Colosseum. Element gets bigger and bigger and better (is that possible?). Out of this world production, a kick arse sound system and a stellar DJ line up: The Sharp Boys, Steve Pitron and Severino, pulls a diverse crowd of the city's best party people. In "the other room" Dave - Daisy - Cross plays pure, unadulterated, 100% D.I.S.C.O. She is D... Dave Cross, l...you get it. OOOOOO! Miss Ross, Sledge Donna Summer and all the dance floor divas will be in attendance. Expect brand new Summer décor, yards of drapes in blue and white, towering water columns...And in the cushioned seating area, if it all gets too much, there's a professional masseur to knead away the disco damage. Keep your eyes peeled for the brand new lasers and pyrotechnics. Get yourself all hot and bothered as you ogle sexy Element dance troupe. Being the understanding guys that the Orange crew are, they've realised that Pride weekend really does take its toll on even the most affluent wallet. So, entry is a Fiver before midnight. Reduced drinks prices before 12.30. Get down there already! You still up? God woman, go to bed! Or, we could all just be really naughty and go to Later, the Sunday afternoon party and the official Beyond/Crash after party. The Oli and Steve B play funky house til the sun dips down below Vauxhall Park. And then of course there is the unparalleled Orange, mashing your brain well into Monday morning. For the filthy funsters amongst you there's Rude Boies on Thursday, also at Fire. Check out the cruise cabins with "pleasure holes", hot n horny cinema, special rude boyz performance and an amateur strip show where each entrant wins £25. Oh, you are naughty, but we like it.

From Orange to White, The White Party Amsterdam. Not far away, just August 7th, so you best be thinking about that spotless creation that you'll be sporting at The Powerzone, Amsterdam. If you truly follow the jet set party crowd then August the 15th is the White Recovery Party, Ibiza. Will you be there? Ok enough of the colour theme thing. D-N-A has now switched to the 2nd week of the month, which means it runs this Saturday. Leave your attitude at the door and dance away to hands in the air style gay anthems... not taking itself too seriously by making sure the music is at the commercial end of the house spectrum. Vanity & the Mark FREE entry to Crash Afterhours host the night plus there's FREE entry to Crash Afterhours for all guests for those who want to sample the more underground sound of the London house music scene. Bootylicious is three years strong and still bringin' it on - for everyone! Friday 9th is the date. Crash the venue. Featuring two rooms of the finest RnB, funk, soul, and disco classics. The Bootylicious DJs are: Nikki Luca, Jeffrey Hinton, Sugarbear, Calvin Biggy C, Mark Bambach, Henock, Tyrone, MC Chickaboo and Miss rhythm divine herself. Joy on percussion. The Booty bashes are always major events: get there early and be prepared to sweat like a mutha. Staying at Crash and still sweating like a mutha, the next Hard On is on the 17th. I'm sure you all know by now, and are probably fed up being told, but Hard On is a MEMBERS ONLY club. Membership forms can be found at Regulation, RoB, Fettered Pleasures and all branches of Clone Zone, or you can download the form from www.hardonclub.co.uk. Hard On also enforces the strictest of dress codes. Rubber, leather, uniforms, skin gear, jocks and boots... you get the picture. Wear plain jeans and trainers and you will feel the wrath of Ms Suzie K. You have been warned. Causing mayhem on the decks are Hugo'sland, Graham D, EJ Doubell and Little Miss Natalie. In the back, Simon Wallis, Jack Chang and Brent Nicholls. Jack Chang and Brent Nicholls? Now that's worth squeezing into a rubber t-shirt for. Still in Vauxhall, if you're into hairy bears and beely blokes with bangin' beats thrown in for good measure, then The Den is for you. Every 2nd and 4th Sunday of the month at South Central (formally Dukes), £4 on the door, £3 with Growlhouse, Bearhug or BCUK membership. 8pm til 1am. Men only. If you're still growling for more action then a coach leaves from South Central at 12.30 to take you to the LA3. Chrisco, Karlton and Severino serve it up on the ground floor, while in the "Bass'ment Don Grant and Royf take it harder and faster. Up at Egg at afterhours Bleached, it's Boy George's last set for the summer months. Catch him while you can. He returns to the decks later in the year. Back in the bustling West End, those Twisted Queens Wayne G and Stewart Who? take over the legendary Heaven on Saturday 10th to celebrate the final screening of their super successful documentary Twisted. Twisted rocked ►

► KUDOS

► 2 BREWERS

► KAZBAR

► the Lesbian and Gay Film Festival and to much acclaim became a bit of a star at the NFT. Hosting the whole shebang is Ricca, who usually hosts the Stonewall bar/club in Sydney. Guest DJ is Cam, again over from Oz, he's played Hong Kong, Los Angeles and all over Australia. His uplifting vocal house with strong trance elements will have the main floor at Heaven heaving. Resident Wayne G and Stewart Who? take the party through til the very small hours in the morning.

Gorgious is back this Sunday at its new venue the Rex. With the likes of Dave Cross, David Rogers, Danny & Junior J on the decks, the music policy is the funky side of house. Johnny Hollywood & friends inject a healthy dose of glamour into a night that's building itself a loyal following and has taken on a new lease of life at its, um, gorgeous new venue!

On Monday 9th at Popcorn there's the Hunks In Trunks Hawaii Pool Party with fun, frolics and a BBQ thrown in for good measure. Heaven opens its infamous swimming pool so bring your trunks for a spot of splash splash. The very Miss Dusty O and Bodum play camp cheese and cool commercial, getting harder as the night goes on. Foxy hunk Gordon John plays dirty underground house in the Dakota Bar. Big Gay Al and his sidekicks Glendora and Miss Diamond entertain the young party crowd. On the 14th at Fruit Machine, Big Dee, Heaven's statuee Diana Dors lookalike performs her first ever stage show. On the decks Femi B and Elliot J Brown play the most refined house to a discerning dancefloor. Jeffrey Hinton and Co play gritty RnB and Bashment in the Star Bar. All drinks are £2 before midnight and cocktails are 2-4-1 all night.

On the alternative side of things, on the 7th at Ghetto at Nag Nag Nag Berlin Ineane and Mignon play. Steve Morell on the decks. On July 8th at Electrogo, at Madame Jojo's Gene Serene and Luxembourg play live. Resident DJs Mark Moore (S-Express), Frankie D (Greenhaus) and Roi (Mechanical Cabaret) spin mixed up electro grooves to a hip and happening fashion conscious crowd. On the 16th July at Popstarz there's the album launch party for the best-dressed men in music, The Hives. Goodies up for grabs. Down in Brighton Queer Nation and Wild Fruit collaborate with O2 music to create a spectacular party at The Zap on Saturday 17th July. In room 1 Dulcie Danger, Norman Jay MBE and Supadon will be raising the roof with soulful house. Queer Nation style, with a dash of disco and a splash of garage. Room 2 is classic disco, RnB and retro house courtesy of Fred Thomas, Kate Wildblood and the legendary Tallulah.

The home of Queer Nation, Substation, sees its popular Boot Camp night move to Thursdays every week. All the bits you know and love that make up this night are still there such as the 'kit shop' and DJs Thanos & Rob C. Finally, remember that Soho Pride is just around the corner, Sunday August 1st, Soho Square, Dean Street, Frith St, Greet St, Bateman, Old Compton and Archer St will all be pedestrianised and around twenty bars and clubs will be participating. Expect DJs, cabaret, comedy, arts, divas and a bloody good time.

launch party

in-no-vate - To change or alter by introducing something new; to remodel; to revolutionize.

Sat 17th July 10pm - 5am @ The FRIDGE

The Fridge proudly presents the launch party for Innovate, the new monthly event in the capital that will showcase Dance music's most cutting edge DJ's, Live acts and new talent.

We live in an age where technology has accelerated the process of music production to the stage where a producer can write a track on a portable laptop studio, burn in onto CD and play it at a club within hours.

Innovate is the club night that will provide a platform for the newest, freshest music that is being made to be presented by the same people that created it. Straight from their music studio's, onto the dancefloor.

This, of course, will be combined with The Fridge's legendary production, amazing sound system and the world's most up for it, friendliest clubbers...

Witness the future, as it happens.

STEAMY STUFF

BY ADRIAN

WHEN I last visited this establishment it was called Sailors (I know, I should get our more) and I've got a thing about sailors! So it was with great interest that I set off to Chariots Limehouse. My concerns were unfounded, the Chariots team have made some excellent improvements and given the place a completely different feel.

The entrance is now much more like a reception, rather than a pay booth. The reception area also acts as the refreshment counter. Coffee, tea and squash are served free of charge you can also buy snacks, meals and drinks. There is also a wide selection of lubes, cock rings and flip-flops. The entrance fee is £11 with discounts for Students and DSS. On Wednesday you can get a discount pass from the White Swan next door and have a brilliant night out. Chariots Limehouse is open from 12noon till 9am the next day and 24hrs at weekends.

Two towels are issued on arrival with extras costing 50p. Located in the reception area is a two station Internet Café ideal for surfing while admiring the talent in the lounge. The changing room is through the large comfortable lounge, dodging past the unfortunately placed large video screen. The changing area is big but the entrance is so narrow, I felt sorry for the guys having to change next to the entrance.

Chariots Limehouse is an interesting labyrinth of stairs and is spread over four floors, it is an excellent cruising space. I love the themes of hell in the basement, earth on the first floor, and heaven on the top floor. It all adds to an imaginative experience. The basement has showers, a large jacuzzi and steam room, with stairs down to a video room showing R18 films. A selection of cabins are on this level, some with their own video screen. The first floor, with the earth theme has a sauna, a steam room, toilets and more showers. Off this level is the best kept secret of the sauna, a secluded garden and sun deck, ideal for getting an all over sun tan during the summer months. When the weather is not so good there is always the tanning booth at £1.00 for 2 minutes (Maximum recommended is 6 minutes). The top level which is decorated to reflect Heaven has 9 clean rest cabins off a central corridor with a video screen at the end.

Chariots Limehouse gets my approval, it is fun and imaginative, the staff and locals are friendly and the facilities are good.

OPEN TRENCH 2

AS the long awaited sequel to one of the best-selling gay fetish films, Open Trench 2 surpasses its predecessor to be one of the filthiest R18 movies on the market. So close to the bone, in fact, that the BBFC (British Board of Film Classification) had a hard time classifying it.

Once again Open Trench 2 takes a look at the sleazy bondage and S&M scene. Directed and starring Drew Warner, the first scene sees him trapped with leather-clad, US hunk, Kyle Richards. Once Drew's clothes have been ripped off him (literally) he's strapped into the sling, and Kyle gets to work on his arse. He starts with his pierced tongue, then gets to work with his huge cock and finally gives the sex-pig's hole the 'pummeling of a lifetime' with a selection of arse-stretching dildos.

The second scene (the one which the BBFC had a "hard time" with) finds blindfolded London lad, Ben Ashton, struggling and tied to a bed. The sexy little fucker gets serviced hard by his dominating commanding officer and after some 'goings on' with clothes pegs, the horny sub is untied and submits to the older officer who fucks him good and hard like a good soldier boy should be.

In the next scene, uber-bottom, Sean Storm, gives us a Master Class in how to ride a colossal dildo - and keep smiling - his Mother must be so proud. The movie ends with sordid janitor, Robert Harvey, giving Adam Wolfe's greedy butt-hole a good 'spit n polish' in a storeroom. If only my cleaner looked like Robert!

"...Get down to your stockists today before the British Board of Film Classification changes its mind on this heavy, hardcore fuck-fest..."

> Prowler has got five copies of Open Trench 2 to give away. Just send your name and address to comps@prowlerdirect.co.uk by Wednesday 14th July and the first five emails chosen at random will each receive a copy.

> Open Trench 2 is available now from Prowler Stores and Expectations.
