

Mt. Satsuki (Satsukiyama)

The legend of a dragon
 At the gate of Taiko-ji Temple a white dragon coils itself. Once upon a time, the dragon came to Bentei Pond to drink water. A priest painted the dragon's eyes white and sealed it. There are scratched marks of dragon on paving stones...

Hoshi (star) no miya
 According to folklore, there was a workshop for two princesses and seven stars came down from the sky to shine on their workshop where they worked until late at night. The name of this place comes from this story.
