BOARD OF FOREIGN SERVICE PERSONNEL

The Board of Foreign Service Personnel is composed of not more than three Assistant Secretaries of State designated by the Secretary of State, one of whom, the Assistant Secretary of State having supervision over the Division of Foreign Service Personnel, is chairman. In addition, under the provisions of Executive Order 8185 of June 29, 1939, one officer of the Department of Commerce and one officer of the Department of Agriculture are members of the Board, sitting as such only when matters of interest to their respective Departments are under consideration. The duties of the Board of Foreign Service Personnel, under Executive Order

*Foreign Service officer.

5642 of June 8, 1931, are: to submit to the Secretary of State for approval, lists of Foreign Service officers prepared in accordance with law by the Division of Foreign Service Personnel in which they are graded in accordance with their relative efficiency and value to the Service; to recommend promotions in the Foreign Service and to furnish the Secretary of State with lists of Foreign Service officers who have demonstrated special capacity for promotion to the grade of minister; to submit to the Secretary of State, for approval and transmission to the President, the names of those officers and employees of the Department of State who are recommended for appointment by transfer to the position of Foreign Service officer; to submit to the Secretary of State the names of those Foreign Service officers who are recommended for designation as counselors of embassy or legation; to recommend the assignment of Foreign Service officers to posts and the transfer of such officers from one branch of the Service to the other; to consider controversies and delinquencies among the Service personnel and to recommend appropriate disciplinary action where required; to determine, after considering recommendations of the Division of Foreign Service Personnel, when the efficiency rating of an officer is unsatisfactory, in order that the Secretary of State may take appropriate action.

MEMBERS OF THE BOARD

G. Howland Shaw, Assistant Secretary of State, Chairman
 Adolf A. Berle, Jr., Assistant Secretary of State
 Dean Acheson, Assistant Secretary of State
 Wayne C. Taylor, Under Secretary of Commerce
 Leslie A. Wheeler, Director of Foreign Agricultural Relations of the Department of Agriculture

DIVISION OF FOREIGN SERVICE PERSONNEL

Charged, under the supervision of the Assistant Secretary of State designated as Chairman of the Board of Foreign Service Personnel, with the appointment and administration of the classified, auxiliary, and clerical personnel of the Foreign Service of the United States. The Division is therefore responsible for the maintenance of the required efficiency standards of the Service and the proper operation of all field offices. It is the custodian of the confidential records of all personnel and in that capacity recommends to the Board of Foreign Service Personnel administrative action regarding assignments, transfers, promotions, demotions, disciplinary action, and separations from the Service, based upon conclusions drawn from an evaluation of efficiency reports, inspection reports, and official authentic information from chiefs of diplomatic missions and consular establishments, from competent officers of the Department, and from other informed sources. It prepares biannually, under the supervision of the Chairman of the Board of Foreign Service Personnel, a rating list in which all Foreign Service officers are graded in accordance with their relative efficiency and value to the Service. From this list recommendations for promotions are made in the order of their ascertained merit within classes. In the performance of its prescribed duties, the Division consults with chiefs of missions, principal consular officers, and the heads of divisions and offices of the Department of State in its investigations and studies of methods deemed necessary to effect the improvement of conditions involving the proper functioning of field offices. It receives all officers and clerks on home leave of absence and discusses with them their work and problems, supplies candidates with preliminary information with respect to entrance into the Foreign Service, keeps the records of the Board of Examiners for the Foreign Service and attends to all details connected with the holding of examinations, and drafts and examines all correspondence relating to the personnel of the Foreign Service. One Foreign Service officer, assigned for duty in the Division, is on the Board of the Foreign Service Officers' Training School.
